Personally, as the Founder of Amax Designs, I would like to thank you so much for assisting us in the beta testing stage of our new applications. I hope you truly have benefited from it. Hopefully, we will have more available testings for you shortly, and those who have a great record in our app testing will be the first people we personally ask to join us in the next opportunity. Please note, that your Promo Code of the full version app release on the App Store should be emailed to you within 2 weeks of our app release, if this test was completed thoroughly and covers all the criteria we required. If you do not receive this Promo Code and you are entitled to one, please email us immediately. Thank you once again.

Good Luck in the future!

Kind Regards,

Daniel
